

Events Are Changes in the Minimum Legal Drinking Age

Dependent Variable is the Motor Vehicle Fatality rate of 18–20 year olds and the unit of observation is a state–month. An event should be interpreted as a 1 year increase in the state minimum drinking age. Dummies coefficients are adjusted so that the coefficient for event time zero equals zero. Regression controls for state and month fixed effects.